

Guidelines for applicants

Regarding Kobe University's Emergency Assistance Fund for students adversely affected by COVID-19 related circumstances.

【Outline of support】

Kobe University has established the “Kobe University COVID-19 Student Emergency Assistance Fund” (hereinafter referred to as the “Emergency Assistance Fund”), which is a grant-type cash payment for students (including international degree-seeking students) facing financial difficulties with regard to their housing and/or living expenses (including tuition fees) due to the outbreak of Novel Coronavirus.

【Target of support】

Students of Kobe University's Faculties, Sea Training Course or Graduate Schools who are recognized to be facing financial difficulties due to COVID-19.

As a general rule, the students described below are NOT the target of this Emergency Assistance Fund:

- Those receiving a Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho) Scholarship or Foreign-Government Scholarship Students
- Those selected for a JSPS Research fellowship for Young Scientists
- Those who are not recognized as being adversely affected.

【Support details】

50,000JPY per student as an Emergency Assistance Fund payment.

【Number of students】

Upper limit of approximately 300 students

【How to apply】

Those who are interested in applying should send the attached application form with a copy of their bankbook or cash card (applicant's or parent/guardian's bank account) to the address below by post.

※For the 'Reason' section of the application form, please make sure to write down a concrete reason as to why you require this emergency aid; for example, you are experiencing financial difficulties due to your own or a family member's reduced income, making it hard to continue living as a student.

Students may be required to submit additional documents to confirm the necessity of this emergency aid.

【Submission deadline】

June 5, 2020 (Fri) 16:00

【Payment Decision】

Payments will be decided by the Kobe University Student Committee Council (Kobe University Fund for Scholarship Committee) based on the application contents.

【Emergency Assistance Fund repayments】

In the following cases, the student is required to return the “Emergency Assistance Fund” payment in full:

- (1) If the information in the application is found to be falsified or incorrect.
- (2) If the necessity of this emergency aid is not recognized.

【Delivery address and Contact】

Kobe University Student Support Division

Tel. 078-803-5227 Fax. 078-803-5209

E-mail: stdnt-kobecorona-shien@office.kobe-u.ac.jp

※We only accept inquiries by email as a general rule.

When sending your application, please cut out the label below and attach it to the envelope along with a stamp.

【Label for delivery】

〒657-8501

兵庫県神戸市灘区鶴甲 1-2-1

神戸大学学務部学生支援課
生活支援グループ 御中

(神戸大学基金生活緊急支援金申
請書在中)