※1 Double degree programs in which students pay tuition fees only to their home institution.

※2 Double degree programs only for receiving students from partner universities, targeted for students in a master's level program in Japanese. Students will be studying for at least two years to obtain a master's degree from the Graduate School of Economics, Kobe University.

※3 With the University of Indonesia Faculty of Economics, the Gadjah Mada University Faculty of Economics and Business, and Bandung Institute of Technology, Kobe University's Graduate School of International Cooperation Studies concluded an agreement for receiving students who aim to obtain double degree programs, thanks to the support of Japan Bank for International Cooperation through its yen loans. The program commenced in Autumn 2007, interrupted in the 2014FY during which time the agreement was renewed with the University of Indonesia and Gadjah Mada University, and resumed from the 2015FY. With the above universities, an additional agreement for receiving students has been signed for students who aim to obtain double degree through their private expenses.

※4 Double degree programs only for receiving students transferring to the third year of Bachelor's program.

※5 Cotutelle programs in which students pay tuition fees only to their home institution.

※6 Double degree programs only for receiving master-level students, run by four Graduate Schools (Law, Economics, Business Administration, International Cooperation Studies). End in July 2021
