Presentation of the University Language Center - SUL

The University Language Center (SUL) welcomes more than 1,500 students from over 50 nationalities each year, supporting them in discovering and improving their skills in modern languages.

Since 1953, the French as a Foreign Language Department (FLE), based in Aix-en-Provence, has offered a wide range of French language programs at all levels of the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages).

The summer courses are organized into four in-person sessions held in June, July, and August.

In addition to language learning and improvement, cultural activities highlighting the richness of the Provençal region are included, enabling participants to explore its landmarks and discover its many festivals.
